

Energy Supply

Energy Systems

Support development of enabling technologies that can provide flexibility & resilience to the future energy systems of electricity, heat and combustible gases.

Transport Systems

Support the UK in leading the intelligent mobility sector, using enabling technologies to leverage a smarter, greener & more efficient transport system.

Smart & Resilient Infrastructure

Support the development of new smart & resilient technologies for infrastructure projects.

Urban Living

Support new future city solutions that improve & integrate multiple urban systems.